NUCLEUS: You were mistaken. I made use of your escape route...through the eye...

THE DOCTOR: Of course - you knew about that -

NUCLEUS: Another mistake - and a costly one, Time Lord...Because now, thanks to your dimensional stabiliser, I am no longer forced to exist in the micro world, no longer forced to find hosts to accomplish my Purpose -

NUCLEUS: To breed and multiply. My swarm - when it is hatched on Titan - will no longer be invisible microbes, prey to all, but mighty and invulnerable creatures! Invincible! The age of man is over Doctor - the Age of the Virus has begun!

THE DOCTOR: Heard it all before. All you megalomaniacs are the same -

has been in contact with the virus before and survivors passed on the immunity.

(HANDS A PHIAL TO MARIUS)

This is it. But you'll need to manufacture a lot more.

MARIUS: What are you going to do?

THE DOCTOR: If these antibodies confer immunity they can be developed to attack the nucleus Professor.

MARIUS: Develop our own supervirus
you mean?

THE DOCTOR: Yes.

MARIUS: Dangerous -

THE DOCTOR: No more dangerous than the nucleus is now. If we allow the nucleus to breed and swarm it will devour the solar system like a plague
of giant locusts -

MARIUS: But can you get to Titan
